BWMT Midland Party Review

Last Month, October 16th-18th

While, financially, we just broke even, we all thought that the event was a great success.

The hotel and our city got great reviews from our out of town guests, despite the cool weather.

Said Mack Scott-Baron (Long Beach) Saturday morning, “my it is cold here.” But on Sunday morning, at the Brunch, he said, “My this air is refreshing! No Smog! I love it!”

Our guests went everywhere, the Potawatomi Casino, the Harley-Davidson Museum, the Lakefront Art Museum, the shops of the Third Ward, etc.

One guest, Monty Addison, also of Long Beach, but formerly from Milwaukee which he had not visited in 23 years, remarked at the amazing transformation of the city, particularly of Downtown Milwaukee

Several of our former members took advantage of our special offer: “come to the banquet 9$25) and you will be considered BWMT Milwaukee membership for the rest of 2009 and for all of 2010. As the dinner was quite enjoyable, both for the food and for the conversatio, this was a win-win deal.

Yes, it was hard work. But we all thought that the results were well worth the effort.

Our three event co-chairs were D.A. Leonard, Mark Behar, and Peter K.
